

Usability Test Check List

	User can access website via a moderately modern web browser
	Website displays appropriately based on screen size
	Navigation bar expands to show options to user
	Navigation links opens each page on site to user
	Links at bottom of main page opens to appropriate page
	Search field is clickable and will accept all keystrokes
	Upon entering data in search appropriate data is represented back to the user
	Upon entering data appropriate graphs are displayed back to user
	The Search link shows previously searched for data
	All three types of graphs work appropriately
	Home button takes you back to home page
	User can export to CSV